1 RULES

1.2 b) In addition to these modifications, and in order for a yacht to be accepted as a genuine Corinthian Spirit participant, the OA will require the following:

- Only one headsail attached to the forestay and furling (one single furling jib)
- Flying furling sails are allowed (Code 0 type of sails) if declared in the ORCSy certificate.
- Only one spinnaker is allowed if declared in the ORCSy certificate.
- The boat should be sailing in fully cruising mode: no cruising material should be disembarked to make the boat lighter, with the exception of the tender, sprayhoods or biminis. A measurer from the event will inspect the boats entering the Corinthian subdivision to make sure they comply with this rule.
- In addition to the permanent crew, only 4 professional sailors (World Sailing Category 3) are allowed on board; they must be declared in the crew list.

4 ENTRY AND ENTRY FEES

4.7 Insurance: each yacht shall be insured for physical loss of, or damage to, the yacht up to the current market value of the yacht and all its equipment onboard and insured for Third Party Liability risks up to €5,000,000 (or the equivalent in other currencies) for the period of the regatta.

The captain shall ensure that a Certificate(s) of Insurance (in English) reflecting the above required insurance requirements is carried on board the yacht at all times during the regatta. The yacht's insurer(s) shall be notified of the yacht's participation in the regatta and provided with a copy of the regatta's notice of race.
